

FREQUENTLY ASKED BGMC

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS:

Q: HOW CAN I GET UP-TO-DATE BGMC INFORMATION?

A: (1) Sign up for BGMC e-news by sending an email to: join-bgmc@news.ag.org
(2) Regularly checking the BGMC Web site at: www.bgmc.ag.org

Q: ARE THE YELLOW BGMC BUDDY BARREL BANKS BEING PHASED OUT BY THE NEW BUDDY BOXES?

A: No. The new Buddy Boxes are just an additional container for kids to collect their offerings in. It is especially appealing to older kids who don't want to carry around a barrel. The boxes are easier for churches and districts to store because they come folded flat. The boxes can also be used for all church promotions because they can be put into church bulletins. BGMC will always have the traditional yellow barrel banks.

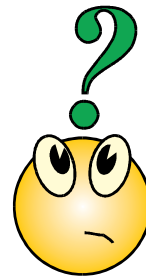

Q: WHERE SHOULD BGMC OFFERINGS BE MAILED TO?

Q: ARE PRINTED COPIES OF THE ANNUAL BGMC CURRICULUM AVAILABLE OR IS IT JUST ON CD?

A: The BGMC manual is now produced on a CD. However, you can still purchase a printed copy of the manual through GPH. The cost is $15. Every year BGMC will still print a limited number of manuals.

Q: HOW OFTEN SHOULD MISSIONS AND BGMC BE PRESENTED TO THE KIDS?

A: We suggest you do a missions emphasis once a month either on a Sunday or Wednesday. Devote the entire service or class time to missions. If that is not possible, do a missions spotlight once a month or every week. It's important to TEACH kids about missions—not just take up a missions offering.
