

Green Global Missions Merit

Release Date: April 1, 2009

1. Prepare a five to ten minute presentation on at least ONE of the missions-oriented ministries below. Be as creative as possible, using multimedia and other tools. Ask your pastor (or youth pastor) for permission to present your missions spotlight in a service:
  - a. Royal Rangers International (www.royalrangersinternational.com)
  - b. Speed the Light (www.speedthelight.ag.org)
  - c. Boys and Girls Missionary Challenge (www.bgmc.ag.org)
  - d. Convoy of Hope (www.convoyofhope.org)
  - e. Pathfinders (www.pathfindermissions.org)
  - f. Latin America Child Care (www.latinamericachildcare.org)
  - g. Missions Abroad Placement Service (www.worldmissions.ag.org)
  - h. Ambassadors in Mission (www.aim.ag.org)
  - i. Light for the Lost (www.lfl.ag.org)
  - j. Mission America Placement Service (www.usmaps.ag.org)
2. Participate in TWO district-sponsored missions events, such as a Speed the Light rally, Light for the Lost banquet, Boys and Girls Missionary Challenge service, district-sponsored missions trip, etc.
3. Select a missionary that your church supports and prepare a care package for the missionary and family. Ask your church's missions coordinator or suitable alternate for help. E-mail or write the missionary to ask about personal preferences, special needs, or any specific restrictions on what may be sent. You may choose a missionary serving with Royal Rangers International if your church does not support a missionary.
4. Volunteer for at least three hours at a local support ministry such as a soup kitchen, homeless shelter, or food pantry. Talk about your experience and what you learned in a patrol meeting.
5. Set a Speed the Light/Royal Rangers Christmas Project fund-raising goal with your patrol under the guidance of your Royal Rangers leader and parents. Plan as a patrol how you will raise the funds and achieve this goal.
6. Talk to your family about ways you all can be involved in missions including prayerful consideration of a family faith promise, participation in a missions trip (US or abroad), sending care packages to missionaries, etc.
