Personal
Evangelism

Additional Project Ideas

Invite friends. Organize a special guest night. Challenge your girls to invite friends to come with them. Do a fun Friends lesson and include some get-to-know-you activities. Be sure to include a clear gospel message. Help the girls follow-up with their friends who come.

Go shopping. Take your girls to a local Christian book store. Help the girls pick out Bibles and devotionals that would be good for a new Christian to use. Talk to the girls about the importance of discipleship and their role in discipling their friends to become believers.

Share your testimony. Share your testimony with the girls. Share with them how you came to know Jesus as your personal Savior. Share a pivotal moment in your relationship with the Lord where you chose to commit to Christ. Have the girls each write out their own testimony. Encourage them to share their testimony with the group, sharing pivotal moments in their own relationship with the Lord where they choose to commit to Christ over other things vying for their attention and commitment. Talk to the girls about the impact a testimony can have on someone who is not yet a believer.

Start a collection. Have the girls start collecting testimonies. Have the girls ask their families, friends, pastors, and other church members about their experience coming to Christ. Have the girls also ask about how the individual has grown in his or her relationship with the Lord and what having a "commitment to Christ" means to them.

Memorize it. Have the girls memorize the following verses and be able to explain why these verses are important:

Romans 3:23	Romans 6:23
Romans 5:8	Romans 10:9,10
Romans 5:12	1 John 1:9

Read it. Read The Case for Christ (Student Edition) by Lee Strobel as a group and discuss it together. Talk with the girls about how this book can help them witness to friends.
